OUR ORGANISATION

Red Swastik Society was founded on 12th Jan 2001 by following 15 likeminded Samaritans with the initiative of Shri T. S. BHAL, IPS - a Senior Police Officer of Maharashtra Police (India), at the Hall of Harmony, Nehru Centre, Worli, Mumbai. Today this organization is blessed with several stalwarts from all walks of life and all strata of the society. Some of them are un-proclaimed institutions themselves, helping the cause of service to humanity at large. The organization is dedicated to a Sanyasi (a person who renounced all the worldly pleasures) Swami Vivekanand, who was instrumental to spell out Indian magnanimity, kindness and concern about mankind and humanity, for the first time before the world forum/community at Chicago Convention on 11th September 1893 at the World's Parliament of Religions, by proclaiming that-"I am proud to belong to a religion which has taught the world both tolerance and universal acceptance. We believe not only in universal tolerance but we accept that all religions are true. I am proud to belong to a nation and a religion which has sheltered the persecuted and the refugees of all religions and all nations of earth."

The basic aim of this organization is to propagate the Indian ethos, magnanimity and generosity before world community under the banner of, once most popular and revered symbol across the globe and all the religions of the world - "Swastik".

The word Swastik owes its origin to one of the oldest languages - Sanskrit. Swastik is an outcome of two words su - asti, which means that good luck or well-being. Till date Swastik is most popular, pious and revered symbol in oriental cultures and in all most all the religions of the East and used on all most all auspicious occasions. It is regarded as a synonym of good omen.

The prayer of this organization is an invocation of hymns of Upanishads' (books depicting religious prudence) which means that let good happen to everyone, let everyone get peace, let everyone achieve completement.

In the year 1935, a charitable organization Red Swastika Society was first founded by Buddhist Monks in China which had done commendable work of providing relief services during and after the attack on the then Chinese capital Nanking by Japanese forces in the year 1937.

There are several organizations in the eastern Asian countries under the banner of Red Swastika Society pursuing several charitable works.

A letter was written to Geneva Convention vide letter no. NRS/1775/2006 dated 3rd 2006 for recognition of Red Swastik Society for providing the charitable work as per the guidelines of Geneva Convention. (it is under process and persuasion).

We appeal earnestly to all those, who believe in the principle of peaceful coexistence and world peace, to help us to spread this organization, its message and bring in practice the inherent, perennial & perpetual wisdom and cardinal principles of oriental philosophy "Jivo our Jino do"(live and let live) for common good of humanity and mankind on this earth.

VISION

- To provide a holistic approach for the service of humanity without any discrimination of caste, creed, belief, faith, race, colour, language, religion and nationality;
- To provide methodology for awakening of the inherent dignity in an individual for the common good of humanity and world peace;
- To provide the basic infrastructure and emotional strength to face the calamities in life.

MISSION

To promote and support strategic giving for a more equitable and sustainable society.

VALUES

- TRUST: Clear, transparent, discrete and reliable.
- SUPPORT: Passionate about supporting our donors and NGOs to deliver real social impact.
- FLEXIBILITY: Open, responsive and adaptable.
- DEDICATION: Committed to advancing charitable giving and the charitable sector.

Managing Director's Message

The year 2019-20 has been a rather eventful year for us. We had many achievements and made progress on several fronts. The annual report covers these in detail. I wanted to focus a bit more on the role that Red Swastik is playing during current pandemic.

The COVID –19 pandemic has created an unprecedented crisis for all of us. We are all living amidst extreme uncertainty which effects the country's marginalized and vulnerable populations the most. It is indeed heartening to see how NGOs and organizations like Red Swastik have risen to the occasion in helping these communities during these trying times.

As soon as the pandemic broke out in India, and the country went into a nationwide lockdown, we re-prioritized our activities. While we continued to work on our long-term mission we identified areas where Red Swastik could make an impact. We raised an appeal to mobilize resources for the vulnerable groups impacted. Our teams have been deeply engaged in coordinating with our partners to distribute covid protection kit to the frontline media personality. We can't see them as covid 19 affected we want them was covid warrior. They are the source for giving us the news every minute. On this pandemic year 2020 and meeting extra ordinary people who really are far away from the way of living. We tried our best to serve them to see their happiness and smile on their face which made us smile too. On behalf of the Board of Trustees I would like to thank the team at Red Swastik a for working so tirelessly and thank branches for supporting us through the crisis. Our affiliation with them has helped us stay in tune with the global trends and best governance practices. This helps us in building trust with both our donors and NGO partners.

Finally, I would like to thank our donors and partner NGOs, who have supported us in implementing meaningful development programs across India. We, at Red Swastik are committed to transforming lives and communities, and we will continue to do so, with your unwavering support.

Shri Tikaram Shrawan Bhal
Managing Director

Organization's Overview

Ever since the constitution of Red swastik society by some like-minded people belonging to different age groups and different sections of the society in the year 2001. Our organization is working in some devoted issues of health care and child welfare, Nursing & ambulance service, environment and education. The primary objective is to provide relief for the mitigation of suffering caused by epidemics, earthquakes, famines, floods, draughts and other disasters / calamities, and also provide surgical, pharmaceuticals, fixtures, appliances, instruments and necessary garments, etc., to hospitals and health institutions, Now it gives us immense pleasure to present the annual report for the year 2019-2020. Another eventful year is completed in the history of Red Swastik society, which would be ever remembered. The year is meaningful in achieving some milestones in the field of development with our own unique experience and expertise in implementing different development initiatives. This is only possible due to the hard work and commitment of our staffs, volunteers and other individuals directly or indirectly associated with our mission. We are very much thankful to them and delighted to present our achievements and thoughts in a systematic manner in this smaller report.

Financial constraint has always remained as a barrier to shape up our dream. However, due to the support of our partners and members, we are marching towards our vision and mission in a collaborative approach. We wish their support would continue in the days ahead also for supporting the stakeholders to witness a better tomorrow.

Awards Achieved:

Plantation:

Plantation has become vital to rescue planet earth from pollution and balancing temperature. Every year, with the help of Horticulture department, we promote plantation activities in our project areas. During this year we have planted more than 5,000 saplings of different varieties in school premises, panchayat office premise and community lands in Bhubaneswar. Apart from the community level plantation activities, we have provided fruit bearing and vegetables seeds and saplings to the beneficiaries in our project areas.

Awareness on COVID-19:

The world is grappling with the menace of coronavirus, a new virus which we do not know much about. In this situation, preventing people from infection is the only strategy health experts have accepted. India's response to the COVID-19 outbreak, among other things, revolves around raising awareness by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India. We are distributing covid protection kit to the frontline media personality. We can't see them as covid 19 affected we want them was covid warrior. They are the source for giving us the news every minute. On this pandemic year 2020 and meeting extra ordinary people who really are far away from the way of living. We tried our best to serve them to see their happiness and smile on their face which made us smile too.

LOOKING AHEAD 2020-21

#FightAgainstCorona

The year ahead will be a challenging one. The COVID-19 is likely to tighten its grip over India.

The pandemic is most likely to bring about irreversible changes in all our lives, leading to several socio-economic challenges of even higher intensities. Red swastik will continue to address those challenges and work toward its objective of positioning itself as a resource organization for sustainable social responsibility and philanthropy.

Many NGOs are likely to face several funding issues due to the economic slowdown brought about by the pandemic. Towards this end, Red swastik will continue to enable development sector organisations thrive and become stronger partners for transforming lives and communities. Besides this, as always, the organisation will deliver strategic programme and partnership solutions on multiple causes and geographies in ways that optimizes investments for social good. It is not going to be easy, but with support of its partners, Red swastik will be able to overcome every crisis and continue to catalyse strategic philanthropy that ensures maximum impact.
